

Aaron Burr Butcher

February 15, 1938 - February 20, 2026

Aaron Burr Butcher Sr., a devoted husband, father, grandpa passed away February 20, 2026 at the age of 88.

Aaron was born in West Virginia and lived between Maryland and West Virginia growing up. He was the 2nd youngest of his 10 siblings, all who have gone before him. At the age of 17, he enlisted in the Army Reserves. He enjoyed it so much, he signed up for regular Army and served 20 years before retiring. He enjoyed traveling the world and serving his country. Aaron did a hardship tour in Turkey in 1965, also a tour in Vietnam in 1969, and came home to go on the next adventure. He retired in 1976 and took his family to California. In his 30's was diagnosed with diabetes, and with Lorraine's care, fought the disease and it's complications as long as he could.

Aaron is survived by his wife, Lorraine Butcher. Children, Sharon Woo, Karen Butcher-Colcol, Deborah Sanchez, and Aaron Burr Butcher II. Sons-in-law, Bernardo Colcol Jr and Steve Sanchez. Daughter-in-law, Monika Butcher. Grandchildren, James Woo, Samantha Charlton and her spouse Ty Charlton, Madelaine Simone Colcol, Alexander Colcol, Autumn Sanchez, Amanda Sanchez, Braxton Aaron Butcher, Angelica Colcol, Samantha Colcol, and Maria Louise Colcol. Great-granddaughters, Alena Woo, Lilianna Woo, Violet Charlton and Echo Charlton. Followed by 2 god-sons, future grandsons-in-laws, and many nieces and nephews. He loved you all.

Please join us for lunch after the cemetery. Directions will be given at the cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, please consider planting a tree or donating to the American Diabetic Association (Diabetes.org) in Aaron's memory.

“ Uncle Aaron was a strong man, hardworking and kind. Our favorite times were when having meals at family gatherings and hearing about his service days. We bonded over our shared love of country music and the classics that we learned of because of him. We love you Uncle Aaron. Rest in peace with our loving Father.
