“ I would like to give my condolences for your loss of Albert C. Lamp who was my cousin that I grew up with in San Antonio, Texas so many years ago. My name is William P. Evans and I was called Willie back then and his nickname was Sunny boy. We grew up together as close cousins through out the 1940s school years and had many adventures as young kids did during that period. My mom Martha Thoms was sister to Sunny boys mom Stella Thoms and their two brothers Walter Thoms and Gus Thoms. Martha married my father Earl Evans and of course Stella married sunny boys dad Albert Lamp who he was named after. Sunny boys dad eventually divorced Stella and married Hellen and took the family to California to settled there. Later, Sunny boy went into the Navy and I went into the Air Force. I was stationed at Camp Kilmer, New Jersey and sometimes his ship would make Port at the Brooklen Navy Yard in New York City. We were able to visit each other on my base or on his ship which really took some effort since I was in the Air Force attached to a Army base for shipping people overseas and his ship was at dock in a Marine controlled area. Needless to say we had many encounters going to and from with dress code violation/visitation passes with those adversaries. You know, a navy dressed man visiting an Army base and an Air Force dressed man visiting a Navy ship. Getting accommodations and eating at each others base/port became an adventure to say the least. Sunny boy and I kept in touch over the years and enjoyed going over the memories we made together even up to the time he became very sick. I know that he will be missed by his family and friends. Also, the rest of the Evans family wish to send their condolences too. I will miss his presence in my life...Cousin Willie
