

Bertrand Desrosiers

September 13, 1931 - November 17, 2021

Bertrand Desrosiers was born in Squatec, Quebec on September 13, 1931. He joined his beloved wife in Heaven on November 17, 2021.

Bert possessed a love for the outdoors, an ornery sense of humor, and an infectious spirit that exuded positivity. He loved learning from anyone he could and loved hearing about their lives – he never met a stranger. Bert was drawn to mining as a career. He loved the challenge it presented to him. His career took him to multiple Canadian provinces and throughout the United States. But that was his career...His true love was his family, who never had to question whether he loved or cared for them because he made it so obvious. He and his wife would spend countless hours ensuring their family would have memories that could be passed down through generations, guidance that would keep their children strong through each chapter of their lives, and unwavering love that would help their family work through the grief of their absence and be thankful for the time they spent together.

Bert was preceded in death by his wife, Lucie Desrosiers. He is survived by his four children, Daniel (Helene) of Winnemucca, NV, Réal (Shannon) of Winnemucca, NV, Nancy (Darren) of Elko, NV, and Diane (Jamie) of Kingman, AZ; his 12 grandchildren, Denise, Fallon, Theresa, Nicholas, Jaymin, Chayse, Jessica, Lucas, Kyle, Tyler, Aspen, and Vail; his great grandchildren; and a number of other loving relatives and close friends.

Services celebrating his life will be held on Monday, January 31, 2022, at 2:00 PM at Sutton Memorial Funeral Home, 1701 Sycamore Avenue, Kingman, AZ

“ I am so blessed to have known Mon Oncle Bert. I only wish I had become a part of the family a lot sooner so I could have immersed myself in his laughter and sense of humor for a longer period of time. I will always be thankful for what time I did have being able to be a part of your and ma tants lives! Being an “outsider” I enjoyed hearing about all the family stories, so many fun and loving memories I learned about! It didn’t take me long to realize how close knit the Desrosiers are to each other, its the loyalty and steadfastness that sucks you in! For years all I have known is Mon oncles easy going, quiet and kind disposition, with the only time of being loud was because his laugh had filled the room you were in. I’m so lucky to have gotten to spend time with you and I know that we will all be together again soon. You and ma tante Lucy are missed dearly! We love you❤️

“ I have so many happy memories of dad. He was a good man and did whatever he could for his family.

“ I remember when your family came to visit us in Louvicourt Quebec. uncle Bertrand' s had a blue thunderbird and you guys had a small television in the back between the front seats. Your father always had a smile and was fun to be around. God bless him and your mother.

Yes, dad was always smiling. He had a stern hand but it guided us into adulthood and kept us out of trouble. I will miss him terribly.

“ He was a great man and an even greater God Father. You could always count on him for anything, a sound word of advice, car trouble advice (and even a tow), a trip to Circle K for a fountain pop, a little lake time fishing and even an ass whooping when needed. But the most precious gift he gave us all was his love and understanding. Rest easy in the fields of Heaven joined by the love of your life Lucy. May you continue to share your grace and love with those you have touched. I love Mononcle Bert

That was beautiful Stevie. I know mom was waiting for him at the gates of heaven. I take solace in knowing they are together.

“ Aw, the memories... I used to love going to their home in Blue Hill and spend time there with Daniel and family. Bert & Lucy were such strong personalities and their love for their family was always front and center. I was always both envious and a bit jealous of that but also so very appreciative. They treated guests with a sense of acceptance and love that was truly palpable. Bert is now back with his soul-mate. God Bless Bertrand Desrosiers.
