“ She was the 1st person brave enough to put me behind the steering wheel of her car. A little canary yellow Mazda station wagon. Gone, but never forgotten.

“ Chris and I worked together at Walmart many years ago, she was my rock when my youngest son died unexpectedly. When I moved from the DePere store back to Green Bay, she would continue to pop in to see how I was doing and share a little about her girls. She was so very proud to be your mother! Please let me know when the Wisconsin service is planned, I would like to meet you all. Your family will be in my prayers. Jenn Cassel

“ I am so sorry for your loss! I first met Chris at a dinner with Shari years ago. She was an old Elcho classmate of my husband Ron. I liked her instantly, and I guess her and Ron were close friends in high school. We used to converse back and forth with Christmas cards and such. She was a sweet person and I could tell she loved her family very much and was very proud of them. I pray that you all find peace at this difficult time. Cherish your memories, and they will get you through. RIP Chris, heaven has gained a sweet angel. With sincere sympathy...Melanie McFadden
