

Elix LeFon Beale

July 13, 1947 - June 1, 2020

Elix LeFon Beale lost his battle with cancer on June 1st, 2020. Elix was born in Hastings, Nebraska on July 13th, 1947 to John Pershing Beale and Della May LeMay.

Elix moved to Kingman with his family in 1962 and attended Mohave Union High School where he excelled in sports. Elix graduated in 1966 and was drafted into the U.S. Army in November of 1966. Upon his return to Kingman he met and married Carol Trough and they had four children.

Elix met and married his soul mate, Betty Jo Hollister (Traxler), in 1991, and she stayed by his side through his passing at home.

Elix is preceded in death by his parents and two youngest children, Seth Bryson Beale, and Elizabeth LeAnne Beale. Elix leaves behind his wife, two sons Elix L. (Lef) Beale Jr. and Richard P. Beale, two stepchildren Shawn Traxler and Renee Horgan, his brother John Beale and sister Patty Coffee, and numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. Elix had a passion for fast cars, hunting, fishing, and golf. He was known around town through golf, softball, and his extraordinary ability on the pool table.

Elix worked in Kingman in car sales. He built his legacy with coworkers and repeat customers around his honest methods. It is said that many respected local salesmen honed their skills working with Elix.

Due to the current national situation a private memorial service will be held at a later date.
