“ I have so many good memories of Jamers when he was growing up. He was such a beautiful baby and toddler and so, so smart. He was a towhead which turned to blonde as he got older; he had beautiful bright blue eyes like his father, and was quite shy. He loved to read and read, gaining knowledge about all kinds of animals and could remember just about everything he read. I also remember him organizing and grouping his toys in ways that made good sense. He was very intelligent, very kind to everyone and shy. ❤️ Love you and will always miss you James Until we meet again. Love, Aunt Tonya
