

Katherine Ann Condra

July 6, 1944 - March 24, 2026

Kathy was born during WWII. She grew up in San Diego and later El Cajon, California. She met her husband, Robert L. Condra, while in high school. They had 3 boys, Donald, James, and Michael. After living in several states in the US, they settled in Apache Junction, Arizona. Kathy was an exceptional stay-at-home mother to the boys. She trained first as a machinist and later as a nurse when the boys were older. As Bob worked on powerhouses at dams, they moved to Boulder City, Nevada, and then Kingman, Arizona, where Kathy worked for many years as a hospital nurse at Kingman Regional Medical Center.

Kathy was known for her devotion and compassion as a nurse. She had a skill for teaching the new nurses to follow in her footsteps. She shared her wisdom, common sense, and has been seen as a rock for others.

Kathy loved her church, her neighbors, her friends, and her family. She had a contagious smile and greeted people everywhere. Kathy would socialize over coffee and banter, wanting to find out all about you. At home she would have her dogs close to her. Kathy remembered her friends and family with birthday and special cards. You could bet the envelope would have many colorful, fun stickers. Kathy would have liked that you put stickers on this obituary too. She lost her husband, Bob, in 2007. She felt fortunate that she later met her partner, Gary Begin, and shared a life together in Kingman.

Kathy leaves behind and will be fondly remembered by her brother, Bill Dickinson (Beth); Sons: James (Julie) Condra and Michael (Shannon) Condra; Grandchildren: Andrew (Erin), Mark (Josephine), Hannah, David (Claire), Jonathan, Dylan, Thomas, Timothy, Sarah (John) and Sydney; Great Grandchildren: Athena, Roman, Sage, Rainier, Penelope, Violet, Nicholas, and Waylon. Nephew Neal and Niece Laura. She is preceded in death by son, Donald, and grandchildren, Benjamin and Michael.

Kathy will be remembered in our hearts. She is at peace. Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in Me, though they may die, shall live." (John 11:25) Live well with the Lord.
