

Kevin Parry Jewkes

August 28, 1957 - March 28, 2026

Kevin Parry Jewkes graduated from Earth on March 28, 2026, succumbing to heart failure. He was 68 years old.

Born to goodly parents Kenneth and Fern in Murray, Utah, he came to Earth on August 28, 1957. In life, he dared to marry twice, had four children and eleven grandchildren. He was an Eagle Scout and a happy fisherman and hunter, making several trips to Alaska and South America. He was a master tradesman and proud owner of a construction company. He served his church faithfully in many positions including bishop and missionary, serving for a time in South Africa. He expressed so much vim and vigor for his retired life in Kingman Arizona, and was actively building up his ranch for chickens, goats and motorized toys for the grandkids until the day he died. He loved so hard his heart was worn. He was a happy and beautiful human.

He is survived by his wife, Sharon; his children, Amanda, Hollie, Aaron and Heather (of Laurie Pyper Jewkes); his grandchildren, Isaac, Rebekah, Lucyna, Jaysin, Eli, James, Charlie, Ruby, Clementine, Zebulon and Beau; his great-grandson, Reece; his brothers, Kris, Ken, and Kurt (his best friend); his sisters, Kim, Kara, Kalie and Kamala (Kami); and his beloved dogs, Tommie and Tillie.

“ I enjoyed all my time with Kevin and Sharon. It could be at their house or playing hours of poker together. My condolences to Sharon and family and when you're playing poker up there may you always get royal flushes. You will be missed my friend.

“ From the moment Mike and I met Kevin, we were instantly bonded like we had know oneanother for a life time. We shared fun time together filled with laughter and our love for history and things from the past. He gave so much and worked so hard. You couldn't stop him. He was ready to go at a moments notice. So talented with his craft of pretty much anything his hands touched. We had many thoughts of traveling together but illness got in our way. He would give the shirt off his back if you needed it. He talked so highly of his love for Sharon always. She was his rock and he hers. He told us about his kids he was so proud of. There were so many stories that race through our minds thinking about our short lived friendship, only because he went home to build his kingdom above. You are so missed and loved Kevin. We'll just have to finish our plans together when we all meet once again some day.
