“Lilian was such a good friend to me. We enjoyed our coffees (with whipped cream) and special treats, at her house, while we chatted away about our childhoods, our lives, our pets, our husbands and our illnesses. We loved to have a good long conversation on our phones, too. I always smiled when she called my goofy little Shih Tsu “Shrimp” and “Schnitzel”. She laughed about the many ways Lucy got herself in the doghouse. From Lilian I learned many new things about WW2, Germany, horses, dogs and even birds. She was my wonderful next-door neighbor. I will miss her greatly.
