

Nancy Lee O'Haver

December 8, 1947 - May 3, 2024

When I am gone, do not mourn for me but celebrate the life I lived and the love I gave.

Nancy O'Haver, 76, of Kingman, passed away peacefully surrounded by her family at the Joan & Diana Hospice Home on May 3rd, 2024.

Nancy was born in Owatonna, Minnesota to Charles and Marion Turnmire on December 8th, 1947. Born and raised in Minnesota, Nancy made a few life-long friends whom she spoke very fondly of. She held various titles over the course of her life, but the ones she cherished the most were Mom, Grandma and G-G Ma. Nancy will be missed by those who genuinely loved her.

Nancy is survived by her son Shawn (Marie) O'Haver, daughter Rebecca (Charles) McCullough, granddaughter Raven (Jonathan) McCullough-Sera, grandson Charlie McCullough and great-grandsons Bransin "Little B" and Jaxsin "J-Bird" Sera.

“ I am sad to lose a lifelong and dear friend. Nancy worked hard, gave her best, and always put others first. Her droll sense of humor never failed to make me smile. We lived together a few times over the years, the first when she brought Christian home from the hospital. Three adults and two new borns in a one bedroom apartment! Nancy relished the good times and managed the hard times with a gentle resignation. I will miss her dearly but am grateful to have had her in my life. My sincere condolences to her family.
