“ Met Bill in 1970 onboard USS Ranger where we worked together for three years, eight months and twentyseven days followed by a fifty year friendship never realizing we shared the same birthdate While in Cali Bill taught me, a 21 year old, how to drive at great risk to his pickup and the people of the San Fran Bay area. My National Ensigne flies at half mast this month for William Rienerth. Thanks again shipmate You are not forgotten. essy
